

LAST STOP ON MARKET STREET VOCABULARY

pool	to collect into a puddle of liquid tuning	to adjust a musical instrument so that it has the right pitch lurched	to make a sudden movement; jolted witness	a person who sees or hears something that happened arcing	curving
familiar	known; friendly patter	a series of quick, light tapping sounds graffiti	something written or drawn on public places stray	an animal who has wandered from its home surrounded	to be all around someone or something