

PATRICIA POLACCO VOCABULARY

sneered	to smile or speak in a disrespectful way consoled	to try and make someone feel less sad leered	to look at someone in an evil or unpleasant way rancid	having an unpleasant smell or taste defiantly	refusing to obey something or someone protested	to express disagreement with what someone has said ordinary	usual or normal jeered	to shout or laugh at someone in a loud and angry way chortled	to laugh
bellowed	to shout in a deep voice putrid	a very bad or disgusting smell penalty	a punishment given to a team or player for breaking a rule in the game